

Zone 6 inner

Section 15: Teddington to Fulwell

Distance: 1.81 mi, 2.90 km

Introduction

This is a short section. The start and finish are suburban; the middle section is through a corner of Bushy Park.

There are places to eat at Teddington and Hampton Hill.

Directions

Leave Teddington station on the west side, by platform 1, and bear right along Adelaide Road.

At the end, turn right.

At the next junction, turn sharp left along Park Lane.

At the end, carry straight on into the National Physics Laboratory.

At the next mini-roundabout turn right.

After passing the entrances to the National Physics Laboratory and Teddington Cricket Club, go through Clapperstile Gate on the left.

Turn right along the edge of the cricket field.

Immediately after passing the Canal Plantation on the left, bear left onto a rough path (not the one alongside the plantation)

Then bear left again onto a grass path.

When you reach an avenue of horse chestnuts, bear right onto a narrow grass path.

Keep straight ahead across a grass path and a tarmac path, then bear right at the next path.

Leave the park through the Laurel Road Gate.

Keep straight ahead at the crossroads, and continue along Kings Road to the end.

Turn right along the main road.

Take the second right, which is Clonmel Road.

Then immediately take the footpath on the left.

The footbridge on the left leads to Fulwell station.
